

Hot Tub for the Holidays

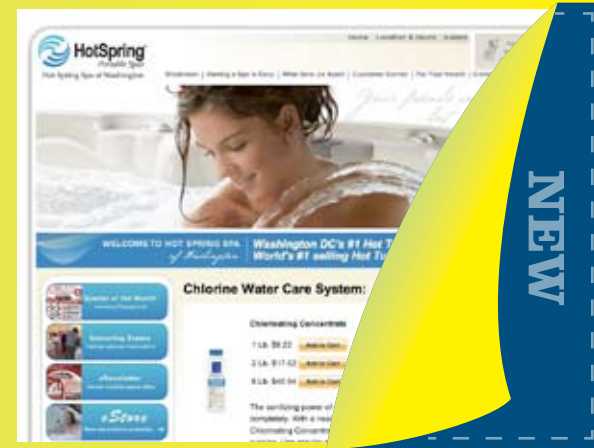

Dave and Ellen Petrocci of Fairfax Station, VA had an old, unusable hot tub built into their deck. Ellen wanted to install a pool in their backyard but their two children wanted a new hot tub. Dave and Ellen decided to install the new hot tub as a surprise Christmas present for their kids. Okay, here was the tough part...we had to remove the old hot tub from their deck, cut a new hole for their new Hot Spring Grandee Spa, add a new base for the spa, and install the hot tub and music system...within 3 days...without the kids ever knowing. We had to work very quickly and be done before they got home from school. Dave comments, "One day my daughter arrived home while the workers were still there. The Hot Spring crew were all hiding on the deck and then snuck out to their trucks at the neighbors driveway. Every night I covered the hot tub with a black tarp so they wouldn't see it." Christmas morning was a great surprise when their kids opened up a funny-looking remote control that they had to guess what it was for. Dave adds, "The whole process was totally perfect. We are so happy with the spa, the jets, and the wonderful SpaudioCast Music System! Hot Spring did a great job with the installation and the surprise!"

Hot Spring Factory Tour Efficient and Green

We've been to Vista, California many times to visit the Hot Spring factory. We are always amazed at the efficiency of their factory and spas plus the Green initiatives they've taken.

- They offer the most energy-efficient spas made
- They have environmentally-friendly water care systems that keep the water cleaner, longer.
- Their factory is constantly implementing new ways to conserve resources, reuse and recycle (i.e. the extra shell material is returned to their supplier to be ground up and reused and they produce their own power through on site generators, easing the burden on the local power grid)

The factory is also extremely safe and clean! We are reminded what a great company we buy from...their wonderful factory just adds to list of reasons why Hot Spring Spas are the #1 selling hot tub in the world!
